Dear Sirs:

We, the property owners in Buck Creek Meadows Sections 4,5,6,7 & 8, request that the following paragraph be added to the dedication and plat restrictions for these sections. The paragraph as follows was included on our copies of the subdivision covenants, but was not recorded in Hancock County. There are currently sixteen items recorded in the plat restrictions with our addition being item seventeen. It should read as follows:

- 17. Each house shall be constructed over a crawl space or basement, and no concrete slab floor at or above outside finished grade will be permitted in the living area. No modular type structures will be permitted, nor shall concrete block construction be permitted for exterior finish of any structure above grade. All houses shall have an attached two car garage.

Cordially,

Douglas F. Detzler
